Support & Web Team

The SmartCash SubReddit has a fresh new banner. Come by and check it out at reddit.com/r/SmartCash.

A new mining pool setting is being tested to send shares every 5 seconds instead of 11 seconds on average. This should improve miner statistics matching the pool and provide a better mining experience.

The SmartCash Web Wallet is currently inaccessible due to a DDOS attempt on the web server but will be back online soon. All funds are secure, only the front-end access is effected and the team is working to mitigate the situation promptly.
